RIGHT TO INFORMATION (RTI) DECLARATION

Right to Information (RTI)

The Right to Information Act, 2005 has been enacted by the Parliament and has come into force from 15 June, 2005. This Act provides for right to information for citizens to secure access to information under the control of public authorities in order to promote transparency and accountability in the working of every public authority.

All Universities and Colleges established by law made by Parliament or by State Legislature or by notification by the appropriate Government or owned, controlled or substantially financed directly or indirectly by funds provided by the Government shall come within the meaning of a Public Authority under this Act. The Act mandates that organizations defined as "Public Authorities" are obliged to provide information to the public and create necessary arrangements in order to promote transparency and accountability in the working of every public authority.

RTI Declaration

In pursuance of the Right to Information Act 2005, an officer has been designated as State Public Information Officer (SPIO) of Polba Mahavidyalaya and he/she shall perform the duties and responsibilities as envisaged under the act without fail.

If the reply is not forthcoming within the prescribed time, or if the information is withheld, the applicant may tender an appeal to the designated First Appellate Authority of Polba Mahavidyalaya in due process.
